Devotion-Patti Smith 2017-01-01 "In lyric essays, a story, poems, and photographs, Smith illuminates the whirl of chance and choice that stokes a writer's imagination, recounting her fascination on the eve of a trip to Paris with Simone Weil and an evocative, accidentally discovered film about Stalin's mass deportation of Estonians. In France, a gravestone, a televised figure-skating competition, a meal, and a garden all converge in what becomes Devotion, [a] ... fairy tale about a young, displaced Estonian skater and a solitary dealer in rare objects and arms. This ... fable about creativity and obsession, possession and freedom is followed by a meditation on how a work of art is, for other artists, a call to action"--Booklist, 08/01/2017.

Why I Write-George Orwell 2021-01-01 George Orwell set out 'to make political writing into an art', and to a wide extent this aim shaped the future of English literature - his descriptions of authoritarian regimes helped to form a new vocabulary that is fundamental to understanding totalitarianism. While 1984 and Animal Farm are amongst the most popular classic novels in the English language, this new series of Orwell's essays seeks to bring a wider selection of his writing on politics and literature to a new readership. In Why I Write, the first in the Orwell's Essays series, Orwell describes his journey to becoming a writer, and his movement from writing poems to short stories to the essays, fiction and non-fiction we remember him for. He also discusses what he sees as the 'four great motives for writing' - 'sheer egoism', 'aesthetic enthusiasm', 'historical impulse' and 'political purpose' - and considers the importance of keeping these in balance. Why I Write is a unique opportunity to look into Orwell's mind, and it grants the reader an entirely different vantage point from which to consider the rest of the great writer's oeuvre. 'A writer who can - and must - be rediscovered with every age.' — Irish Times

Inadvertent-Karl Ove Knausgaard 2018-09-04 The second book in the Why I Write series provides generous insight into the creative process of the award-winning Norwegian novelist Karl Ove Knausgaard "Why I Write" may prove to be the most difficult question Karl Ove Knausgaard has struggled to answer yet it is central to the project of one of the most influential writers working today. To write, for the Norwegian artist, is to resist easy thinking and preconceived notions that inhibit awareness of our lives. Knausgaard writes to "erode [his] own notions about the world. . . . It is one thing to know something, another to write about it."

The key to enhanced living is the ability to hit upon something inadvertently, to regard it from a position of defenselessness and unknowing. A deeply personal meditation, Inadvertent is a cogent and accessible guide to the creative process of one of our most prolific and ingenious artists.

The Blackmail of Evelyn Faust-Shirley Anne Edwards
2015-05-24 Evelyn Faust suffers from horrible insomnia and paranoia. The summer before her senior year of high school should be one of the best summers of her life. But she's tormented by guilt and an addiction that haunts her every waking moment. Evelyn is a drug dealer who also craves the drug she sells. The money and the popularity that come with it aren't bad either. But when she's caught dealing on school property by Eric Wagner, the respected and admired police chief's son, the game is over. He won't snitch on her, unless she gives him whatever he wants - her. She's being blackmailed. Evelyn has no one to turn to for help. Not her parents who don't understand her rebellious nature or her circle of friends who only care about partying and getting high. When Adam Tristen moves in across the street, and he wants to get to know her better, it all seems too good to be true. She must make a pact with the devil. Evelyn now looks over her shoulder wherever she goes, waiting for Eric to act on his threats. But Adam, the charming college sophomore, sees something special inside Evelyn, and he wants to help her fix mistakes. In order to do that she must confront a dark secret from her past that could destroy her family...her life...and her entire world as she knows it. She'll need to take a leap of faith.

52 Weeks of Writing Tips-Bob Nailor
2014-05-08 This is not your typical book on how to write. No, this book is a collection of innovative weekly writing tips to suggest ways to improve your craft - whether it be creating the idea and story, working on the plot, developing your characters, editing, marketing or whatever. Where else will you find Zombies who are your friends? Who'd have thought these creatures of the night would come to help you discover the truth about active vs. passive voice? I guess zombies like living and active things. Or would you believe that cutting word count can improve your sales? With that said, those two words (that, said) can be eliminated to create better writing and increase your profitability. Plus other strange tips to help you become a better writer.

Contact-Walt Socha
2017-07-27 In 11th century North America, the budding nation of Haven is extending its global influence through trade. Larry, one of the Far Ones that crossed over from the 21st century, is captaining the Havenites' ocean-going vessel, Stormchaser. His goal is to establish a trade route from Haven's outpost in Iceland to a small settlement in southern Ireland. But on going ashore at their destination, the Havenites are attacked by the Ur Neill, a northern clan, and their Viking allies. Although Larry and his men inflict heavy casualties on their attackers, they are separated from Stormchaser and are driven into the mountains. Any hope of escaping the island is dashed when a Viking longboat joins the conflict and the now-undermanned Stormchaser must flee back to Iceland. Larry's responsibilities increase as he takes in refugees who are also fleeing the Ur Neill. Desperate to find a sanctuary, the Larry and his men capture a small Viking longboat and sail themselves, and a growing number of refugees, up a river into a remote valley. But the brutal leader of the Ur Neill clan wants revenge for his casualties and his Viking allies want the return of their lost longboat. They start scouring the land for the Havenites. Fatalities mount as Larry struggles to keep his rag-tag group of Havenites and refugees safe. He can only hope that another ship can cross the stormy seas from Iceland before they all end up dead.

Tree of Life-Tracey Jimerson 2014-08-26 How does a woman, who had everything, find her way in this world when all the meaning has been removed? Mara Dalton has a life that most women only dream of. She has an amazing husband, a new baby boy and owns her own company. When her husband and son are killed tragically just days before Christmas, Mara stops living as well. For years she tries to live but finds herself only existing. She attempts to avoid reliving another year of horrible memories at Christmas by leaving her home; which has become her tomb. While traveling with not much of a plan other than avoidance, she discovers a small town in Alabama. The quaint town seems the perfect place to avoid the holiday and her pain. She finds more than she bargained for in the Lambert family; a family whose roots are buried deep in their small southern town. Mara discovers the one thing she has lost, herself. She struggles to allow herself to live again, at the same time breathing life into the town and the Lamberts. Sometimes we don't get to choose where we lay our roots, it chooses us.

Oblique Light-David Robbins 2014-09-30 This is prizewinning author David Robbins' twentieth book. Oblique Light is a collection of long short-stories set in Scotland and dealing with the alienation and amorality of self-imposed exile. This is short fiction of the highest order. The stories were conceived in Scotland in the early 1970s and finally completed in Johannesburg forty years later. In his short introduction, Robbins sets the scene: 'I lived in a stone-built town huddled on the mainland side of the Firth of Clyde. Here, the landscapes finally began to mean something to me. Far from being picturesque, they struck me as low and potentially hostile. At first I thought the landscapes had shaped my general mood. It was only later that I began to understand how much my deepening emptiness and ideas of alienation had shaped the landscapes, bending them to the contours of my eyes.' From the gloom of these settings emerges a collection of characters, many of them unmistakably South African, that are drawn with power and a mature skill. The book is Robbins' third collection of short stories. He was awarded a Lifetime Achievement Literary Award in 2010. One of the editors to work on the Oblique Light manuscript described it as of 'absolutely major importance'. About the Author: David Robbins has received numerous awards for his writing, beginning with a CNA Literary Award in 1986 and culminating twenty-four years later with a Lifetime Achievement Literary Award supported by the South African Department of Arts and Culture. He is widely regarded as a writer of significant insight and ability. He began publishing in 1985. His books include travel and short fiction, as well as some biography, history and socio-political analysis.

Fate-Scarlett Haven 2016-01-17 Welcome to New Hope Academy-home of the rich and famous. And then there is me. Katerina Vasin. A very ordinary girl who is definitely not rich. My parents shipped me off to an American boarding school, but I can't figure out why I'm here. Or how they're paying for it. I have an ordinary family and an ordinary life. Or so I thought. As it turns out, my family isn't so ordinary. Life just got a bit more complicated.

The Millennium Soldier-Voyle A. Glover 2011-10 During the time called The Millennium, a thousand years of peace enveloped Earth. During this time, Earth is ruled by one called Messiah, and governed by men and women who had died, and who now lived, and were said to be indestructible. Disease has been conquered. Life spans are expanded to hundreds of years. Crime is non-existent. Technology explodes as a result of expanded minds, of the absence of evil and disease, and other impediments to human knowledge. Suddenly, travel to the stars is not merely possible, but common. As Earth fills with people, many seek out new worlds in which to live. But, long ago in Earth history, there roamed a malignant being whose origins were off-world. This alien inserted himself into the life of mankind, wreaking havoc, bringing wars, and seeking to destroy all of mankind. He is assisted by beings like himself. They are able to take control of some humans, possessing their minds and bodies and bringing them under complete domination. Humans who become controlled by one of these aliens have no will of their own. In time, after many wars and much destruction, this being and his army are imprisoned by Messiah. However, at the end of 1000 years, he is again loosed, to test all of mankind. This malignant entity who calls himself Lucien, begins a crusade of seduction, deception and corruption of the humans governments and humans on Earth. Lucien was known in the past records of that ancient book called The Holy Book, as Lucifer, or Satan. He is a magnificent creature, beautiful to behold, powerful beyond any human, and able to bend humans to his will. His will now is to conquer Earth, the universe, and all life. But, his ultimate goal is what he'd always sought: the throne of God. His intention is to mount an assault on Heaven itself. Lucien seeks to enlist a human whose origins are mysterious. This strange warrior soldiered in many wars for the causes of Earth governments, even fighting against ruthless alien invaders from other planets. He is called Cubal. In all of the universe there is no one quite like him. His fighting skills are legend, and he is trained in the mysterious fighting discipline called D'vru, a fighting technique only one man ever truly mastered, though many achieved rank in the art. Cubal was the only one to achieve the highest level of, D'vru., He is the unstoppable soldier, a warrior without peer. There is another who also seeks Cubal for the coming war. Messiah seeks him, too. But, one who is a Wearer of the Black, the garb of all who trained in the ways of D=vru, does not believe in gods, nor in devils, but only in superior beings, of which he knows he is one. This is a Christian Science Fiction thriller. If you liked Star Wars, you'll love this action-packed, mind-boggling story set in Earth's future, when devils descend upon mankind in a way never before seen, and when strange aliens invade Earth, seeking to set up a demonic kingdom populated with aliens and cloned humans who worship the being called Lucifer. One man will oppose them. But, even this man cannot realize the enormity of the battles ahead, nor the power of the alien he will face in battle.

The Bradford Conspiracy-Joseph Fields 2009-01 Ex-C.I.A. agent Matt Case must find the kidnapped son of the U.S. President before the boy is brainwashed and unleashed as a weapon of destruction against his unsuspecting father.

Malamud and Corruption at Oregon State University-Barry Roberts Greer 2012-11-25 The original manuscript completed in 1992 that chronicles an attempt led by Oregon State provost Graham Spanier to fire a writing instructor for publishing a commentary on corruption at Oregon State University. The instructor, Barry Roberts Greer, a widely published writer, fought back for two years until both he was forced out of OSU and Spanier left to become the now disgraced former president of Pennsylvania State University. Strong parallels exist between Greer's experience at OSU and the experiences of the protagonist in "A New Life," Bernard Malamud's novel based on his own experience teaching at Oregon State.

Be Still and Know-Peggy S. Baumann 2011-06 The Bible tells us that Jesus was in the desert for forty days and forty nights. For him, the experience was a time of difficult testing in preparation for the great things God had in store for his only son. As human beings, we, too, often find ourselves in a desert of testing, making life difficult. For women, filled with love and sensitivity, these desert times can feel even more trying. Be Still and Know is a collection of forty daily devotions intended to encourage you in your daily walk and lift you up in times of testing. You may wear many hats mother, daughter, wife, sister, friend but you are also, and always, a beautiful daughter of God. These daily devotions give you a moment to step away from the hustle and bustle and into a quiet desert oasis with the Lord, where you will find peace in his presence. Jesus loves you no matter what desert you are currently in. Come lift your spirit, calm your nerves, and feel beautiful in the eyes of the Lord. Life is tough, but God is tougher, and he invites you to grow in strength and in your relationship with him by spending quiet time in his presence every day.

Good Reception-Matt Mills 2012-09-01 How does it feel to be here and there - at the same time? Maxwell Greyson refers to himself as a project manager but really only makes use of that title in an attempt to mask his ridiculousness, which is something that has plagued him all of his life. He unwittingly embarks on a quest to find what he's always sought. He finds it, or rather he finds something, but doesn't know exactly how to process it or what to do with it. What ensues is a journey that starts at zero and ends up near the edge of the multiverse. Or is it the other way around?

Sunrise on the Icewolf-Colleen Drippe
2017-02-25 Young Helen Kley of El Colony, a world dominated by women, doesn't know what to make of the two young men who suddenly come bursting into her life, rescuing her from a humiliating kidnap attempt. That they are offworlders, she has no doubt, that they are corporate agents of some sort, she suspects. Otherwise why do they withhold their names, giving her only the number of a safe line to contact them? In the end, she becomes friends with the one she dubs "Pro" (the other she call "Con" because of their differing attitudes) and simply learns to think of them as her guardians. Only when she comes of age, two years later, and is by custom given her father's name and an invitation to visit heretofore unknown relatives on his homeworld, does she learn the truth about her adopted guardians. In fact she learns truth after truth as she and Pro, whose real name she finally learns, must battle their way through one adventure after another as they seek her missing father while avoiding his enemies. In the end, she faces not only threats from the outside, but also the need to come to terms with her own values and background -- to choose and to choose rightly. Everything she has learned to care about depends on her choice -- her own happiness and the welfare of those who have become dear to her.

Women Writing and Directing in the USA-

Kiara Pipino 2020-03-12 Women Writing and Directing in the USA: A Stage of Our Own features interviews with some of the most successful theatre artists currently working on and off Broadway and beyond. The book provides an insight on what it means and what it takes to be a successful female-identifying playwright and director in the USA, where the professional theatrical landscape is still mostly dominated by straight white men. The interviews explore a wide range of themes, including if and how the artists' female perspective influenced their art, the social and cultural significance of their work, and how theatre and women working in theatre can participate in awakening greater social awareness. Readers will learn about some of the most current and relevant American theatre artists, such as Young Jean Lee, Pam MacKinnon, Dominique Morisseau, Rachel Chavkin, and Martyna Majok. Written for students in directing and playwriting courses, Women Writing and Directing in the USA: A Stage of Our Own features inspirational and informative stories that will help young theatre artists find and pursue their artistic voices.

Beloved Devotion-Persephone Autumn 2020-07-28 When your past catches up with you, where do you run? Four years ago, I walked into a bustling bar with my besties. On the very same day, I met the love of my life. Tiffany Page. A woman with a fiery spirit and a gentle heart. Her whimsical voice and sweet laughter ignite a fire deep in my bones. In the blink of an eye, Tiffany arrests my soul and holds it captive. And I never want her to release it. From the very beginning, my relationship with Liz Warren was a firestorm. Hot. Intense. Unrelenting. I never imagined being loved the way Liz loves me. Smoldering and sweet. Fierce and gentle. Blazing and heartfelt. Her love fulfills me. Her love incomparable. The only real love I've ever known. I wish I could tell Liz all my secrets. Wish I could shed my past. A past which is slowly catching up to me. When the love of your life proposes, exhilaration should course through your veins. When the love of your life proposes, you shouldn't be terrified of what happens next. But I am. An unwavering love. A closet of skeletons. A beloved devotion fighting to stay alive.

Kant's Little Prussian Head and Other Reasons Why I Write: An Autobiography in Essays-Claire Messud 2020-10-13 A glimpse into a beloved novelist's inner world, shaped by family, art, and literature. In her fiction, Claire Messud "has specialized in creating unusual female characters with ferocious, imaginative inner lives" (Ruth Franklin, New York Times Magazine). Kant's Little Prussian Head and Other Reasons Why I Write opens a window on Messud's own life: a peripatetic upbringing; a warm, complicated family; and, throughout it all, her devotion to art and literature. In twenty-six intimate, brilliant, and funny essays, Messud reflects on a childhood move from her Connecticut home to Australia; the complex relationship between her modern Canadian mother and a fiercely single French Catholic aunt; and a trip to Beirut, where her pied-noir father had once lived, while he was dying. She meditates on contemporary classics from Kazuo Ishiguro, Teju Cole, Rachel Cusk, and Valeria Luiselli; examines three facets of Albert Camus and The Stranger; and tours her favorite paintings at Boston's Museum of Fine Arts. In the luminous title essay, she explores her drive to write, born of the magic of sharing language and the transformative powers of "a single successful sentence." Together, these essays show the inner workings of a dazzling literary mind. Crafting a vivid portrait of a life in celebration of the power of literature, Messud proves once again "an absolute master storyteller" (Rebecca Carroll, Los Angeles Times).

Characteristics from the Writings of John Henry Newman-John Henry Newman 1875

Devotion-Madeline Stevens 2019-08-13 A captivating debut novel about a woman who falls into an overwhelming mutual obsession with the Upper East Side mother who hires her as a nanny Ella is flat broke: wasting away on bodega coffee, barely making rent, seducing the occasional strange man who might buy her dinner. Unexpectedly, an Upper East Side couple named Lonnie and James rescue her from her empty bank account, offering her a job as a nanny and ushering her into their moneyed world. Ella's days are now spent tending to the baby in their elegant brownstone or on extravagant excursions with the family. Both women are just 26—but unlike Ella, Lonnie has a doting husband and son, unmistakable artistic talent, and old family money. Ella is mesmerized by Lonnie's girlish affection and disregard for the normal boundaries of friendship and marriage. Convinced there must be a secret behind Lonnie's seemingly effortless life, Ella begins sifting through her belongings, meticulously cataloguing lipstick tubes and baby teeth and scraps of writing. All the while, Ella's resentment grows, but so does an inexplicable and dizzying attraction. Soon Ella will be immersed so deeply in her cravings—for Lonnie's lifestyle, her attention, her lovers—that she may never come up for air. Riveting, propulsive, and startling, Devotion is a masterful debut novel where mismatched power collides with blinding desire, incinerating our perceptions of femininity, lust, and privilege.
