Chasing the Rose-Andrea Di Robilant 2014 "The author of the best-selling A Venetian Affair now gives us a charming chronicle of his search for a fabled antique rose--a tale that takes us back to the time of Josephine Bonaparte, and looks into the future of this much beloved flower"--

Chasing the Rose-Andrea Di Robilant 2014-05-06 From the author of the best-selling A Venetian Affair, here is the charming chronicle of his search for the identity of a mysterious old rose. Andrea di Robilant's tale takes us back to the time of Josephine Bonaparte, as well as into some of the most delightful rose gardens in Italy today, brought to colorful life on the page in the watercolors of artist Nina Fuga. In his 2008 biography of the Venetian lady Lucia Mocenigo (his great-great-great-great- grandmother), di Robilant described a pink rose that grows wild on the family's former country estate, mentioning its light peach-and-raspberry scent. This passing detail led to an invitation for an audience with a local rose doyenne, Eleonora Garland. She and other experts wondered if di Robilant's unnamed rose could possibly be one of the long-lost China varieties that nineteenth-century European growers had cultivated but which have since disappeared. On the hunt for the identity of his anonymous yet quietly distinctive rose, Di Robilant finds himself captivated by roseophiles through time--from Lucia and her friend Josephine Bonaparte to the gifted Eleonora, whose garden of nearly fifteen hundred varieties of old roses is one of the most significant in Europe--and by the roses themselves, each of which has a tale to tell. What starts out as a lighthearted quest becomes a meaningful journey as di Robilant contemplates the enduring beauty of what is passed down to us in a rose, through both the generosity of nature and the cultivating hand of human beings, who for centuries have embraced and extended the life of this mysterious flower.

The Adventures of Abigail Rose - Ida Patten's Antebellum Doll-Lela Hartsaw 2016-02-26 A porcelain doll lost during a hurricane on a pre-Civil War sugar plantation, Abigail Rose, in her own words, describes life in 19th century Florida--through the long and worrisome War Between the States, frightening visits from enemy troops, near-misses with local Indians, and a chance encounter with a fugitive. The Adventures of Abigail Rose - Ida Patten's Antebellum Doll, as historical fiction, will entertain readers while candidly detailing but a brief moment in history. The Blues-Susie Drougas 2017-01-05 When he's not practicing law, Dusty is riding in the high mountain country of the Pacific Northwest with his sidekick and P.I., Mike. Divorced, Dusty never imagined himself in a serious relationship again, until fellow lawyer and high country rider Cassie appeared on the scene. Dusty was reviewing files in his office, when his old pal Bill called with a case. "I have an outfitter friend down in Joseph, Oregon, who's being sued. A couple celebrating their anniversary on a pack trip in the Eagle Cap --the woman was killed during a day ride." Dusty accepts the case and looks forward to finally riding in the Eagle Cap, something he'd dreamed about for years. Little did he know, the job would test his friendship with Mike; strain his relationship with Cassie to the breaking point, and put all of them in the crosshairs of certain death. This is an action-packed adventure that will take you from Seattle to Portland, and finally to the middle of the Eagle Cap Wilderness. A must read for anyone who enjoys page-turning entertainment in the northwestern outdoors.

Storyteller's Rose-Sebastian Alexander Barnes 2013-06-10 What is your purpose? The Vagabond does not have one. He is a young man who loves to travel, longs for the next sunrise, and questions things not yet wondered. Above all, he follows the wind. An old man, the Storyteller, visits him. The Storyteller's purpose is to tell tales of the journey. He seeks an understudy, and it will be the Vagabond. The young man joins the old, and along the way they encounter strange characters and divine creatures, uncover ancient legends, and bring stories to life. But there is more unfolding besides their journey. The stars mysteriously fade from the sky, mists grow darker every day, a nation is at war for no reason, and a shadow beast hunts the Storyteller. The Vagabond is in the center of it, along with the purpose he is destined to fulfill.

Trust and Destiny-Arwen Jayne 2013-11-09 One minute he'd been Michael Williams, six foot four, short cut brown hair and unassuming brown eyes. The next minute he'd found himself in a vast boundless void of light and space with no point of reference. It was immensely peaceful with a sense of oneness and connectedness with everything. Then he was spat out the other side, confronted by a woman with sea-green eyes and hair the color of softly spun gold that flowed down her back. Horror stills Michael to the core as he realizes that he has travelled not just through space but time as well and this wondrous woman is destined to fight to save his planet from an invasion of aliens from the lower dimensions. Only trouble is she's going to be on the losing side. Kiana's a warrior and her kind don't interfere with free will or destiny. "If I must face what I must face tomorrow though, I have something to ask of you. It may even be the reason you came." God help him, he thought he'd sell his soul if she wanted it. "Ask away. If there is anything I can do it would make me feel a bit less damn helpless right at this moment." Kiana didn't hesitate. If tomorrow was her doom then she wanted her moment with this amazing man. "Mate me." ... Around midnight her sixth sense woke Sarah. Looking up amongst the stars she saw a strange and wondrous sight. A real UFO was coming into land due south of her position. It was unlike any aircraft she had ever seen. It was only because of her keen sight that she was able to make out its almost circular shape. There were no obvious portals or windows. Its mirror like surface sparkled like a myriad of diamonds. It wasn't in any stealth mode. It hovered over the land for a moment and then seemingly disappeared straight into the earth. Her curiosity got the better of her. She banked her fire, gathered up her spear and her few belongings and headed off in the direction of the UFO.
