The Bordeaux Atlas and Encyclopaedia of

Chateaux-Hubrecht Duijker 1998-01-15 This Atlas is the ultimate guide to Bordeaux in which the world's two top Bordeaux experts profile thousands of wines and give fascinating background on the places where they are made. The Bordeaux Atlas has maps and data and expert, objective comment on more than 2,000 chateaux and over 4,000 wines. Hubrecht Duijker's pithy profiles of chateaux great and small take us behind the scenes and into the cellars and tasting rooms. Michael Broadbent's essays on the great appellations offer the insights of a lifetime of study. The geography, history and structure of the wine trade in Bordeaux are all covered: vital for understanding how the wines are made and why they vary.

An Encyclopedia of the Wines and Domaines of France-Clive Coates 2000 In this detailed study of the wines of France, one of the world's leading authorities on wine discusses every appellation and explains its character and the best growers. He uses a star system to identify the finest estates. More than 40 specially commissioned maps show the main appellations and wine villages of France.

The Onion Book of Known Knowledge-The Onion 2012-10-23 Are you a witless cretin with no reason to live? Would you like to know more about every piece of knowledge ever? Do you have cash? Then congratulations, because just in time for the death of the print industry as we know it comes the final book ever published, and the only one you will ever need: The Onion's compendium of all things known. Replete with an astonishing assemblage of facts, illustrations, maps, charts, threats, blood, and additional fees to edify even the most simple-minded book-buyer, THE ONION BOOK OF KNOWN KNOWLEDGE is packed with valuable information-such as the life stages of an Aunt; places to kill one's self in Utica, New York; and the dimensions of a female bucket, or "pail." With hundreds of entries for all 27 letters of the alphabet, THE ONION BOOK OF KNOWN KNOWLEDGE must be purchased immediately to avoid the sting of eternal ignorance.
